FREE GOLD FROM MINE PANNINGS AT REPUBLIC

STAMPEDERS CONTINUE TO VISIT NEW MINING DISTRICT NEAR CLOVERDALE

Republic, the latest mining discovery in southern Nevada, located about 25 miles northwest of Tonopah, continues to attract attention in the city, Goldfield and Millers. A large number of stampeders are now on the ground and claims have been staked in every direction. The district is about five miles west of Cloverdale.

F. Flathie of Millers, who was in Tonopah last evening declared that the mill city was nearly depopulated as every person who could leave his business or employment had stampeded to the district. A number of suits have also gone into the new region by the way of Crows Springs and King Solomon.

The strike was made in the Cirac tunnel. The tunnel was supposed to have been driven along the hanging wall but some distance from the north workings were sent into was really proved to be the hanging wall and panning were made of the vein matter. Each panning resulted in a big string of gold colors, on some silver showing. Kearns of Fletcher, the mining men who owned the property for Patsy Clark, told the panning and it was the result that actuated them in securing the property.

Tom Murphy of Goldfield visited the district yesterday and then returned to Goldfield. He expects to make another visit today. A number of suits left Tonopah this morning for the scene of the discovery and the entire district is to be thoroughly inspected. The camp has been named Republic, after Republic, Washington.

SACRED CONCERT WILL BE HELD ON GOOD FRIDAY

CHORUS OF 50 TRAINED VOICES WILL RENDER "CRUCIFIXION" AT THE NEVADA

The most impressive sacred concert ever held in Tonopah will be produced Friday evening at the Nevada theater when a chorus of 50 trained voices, under the guidance of the Rev. Geo. A. Gallup of St. Mark's Episcopal church, will render "The Crucifixion." The cantata has been rehearsed nightly for some time past and the members of the chorus are perfect in their respective parts.

The chorus, garbed in appropriate robes, will march through the theater to the stage at the start of the concert. Steps from the floor of the building to the stage have been constructed for this purpose. The entry of the chorus singing an appropriate song will give a theatrical effect to the entire concert.

At the start Rev. Gallup considered giving the concert in the St. Mark's church, but the immense interest being manifested made it apparent that the capacity of the church would not accommodate the crowd and he was forced to secure large quarters. Through the courtesy of Smith and Goodfriend, managers of the theater, that building was donated for the purpose.

No admission will be charged and a general invitation has been extended to the public. The complete program of the evening will appear in the Bonanza Thursday afternoon.

Tonopah Murderer Denied New Trial; Will Be Executed

Notwithstanding that the supreme court on Saturday handed down a decision denying Andrija Mirkovich, condemned to die for murder, a new trial, the order directing Judge Averill of this district to again fix the date of execution, has failed to arrive. As is usual in such cases the order is not expected for at least ten days yet. As soon as he is officially informed of the proceedings by the supreme court, Judge Averill will announce for the second time the date of the execution of Mirkovich. Mirkovich was convicted in the local district court last year of the murder of John Gregovich, a prominent merchant of this city. The murder was committed at the depot on May 14, 1912. After being sentenced to pay the death penalty, Mirkovich chose death by shooting. A stay in the execution was brought about by the appeal to the supreme court for a new trial. The appeal was denied and the delayed execution will be carried out, unless the board of pardons intervenes and commutes the sentence.

FOUR INCHES OF SNOW FALLS DURING NIGHT

TONOPAH VISITED BY LOCAL STORM ON THE HEELS OF HIGH WIND

A combination of March and December weather struck Tonopah last night and this morning. A high wind was in evidence during the latter part of yesterday which continued throughout the night until about 1 o'clock this morning. At that time the wind died down and a fall of snow commenced. By 7 o'clock this morning the ground was covered to a depth of about four inches. Intermittent falls of snow continued throughout the day, but owing to the weather turning warm, the deposit upon the ground was greatly reduced in depth. A clear day will witness the disappearance of practically the entire deposit.

TWO JUDGMENTS ARE RENDERED BY COURT

SUIT FILED FOUR YEARS AGO IS ENDED WHEN COURT SUBMITS RULING

Judgment against the Indiana Nevada Mining company of Pioneer was entered in the district court this morning by Judge Averill in favor of W. D. Milliken, who formerly managed the property. Milliken asserted that he had advanced funds to the extent of $46,700 on behalf of the company, and was unable to collect. He brought suit and the case was submitted a short time ago. The ruling of the court this morning allows Milliken the amount he demanded.

Judge Averill also recently made a ruling in the case of Mrs. Laura Darragh, an administrator, versus the Nevada Milling & Ore Purchasing Co. The suit had been pending in the court for about four years and a number of attorneys were engaged. It was submitted recently, and the ruling was in favor of the plaintiff.

According to the complaint it appeared that the sum of $7500 had been advanced for the construction of the Lemon mill. The defendant company repudiated the note, but it was proved that the money had actually been spent in the construction of the mill and the ownership of the plant was likewise traced to the defendant company.

ARRESTED FOR ATTEMPTING BEAT BOARDING HOUSE

CHIEF OF POLICE EVANS DEPARTS FOR GOLDFIELD TO SECURE PRISONER

Evans got in communication with Goldfield and Carabu was located in the southern city and placed under arrest.

PRIVATE CLUBS NOT REQUIRED TO HAVE LICENSE

SUPREME COURT OVERRULES JUDGMENT OF DISTRICT COURT IN ELY CASE

On Tuesday last the supreme court handed down the following decision: In the case of the State vs. the University club of Ely, involving the question of the liability of a bona fide social club to pay a retail liquor license.

The court held that under the statutes as they now exist a license is only imposed upon the "business" of selling liquors and that the term "business" in the statute is used in its trade or commercial sense. It was further pointed out in the opinion that the liability of a social club for such a license was entirely a matter of statutory regulation and within the control of the legislature.

A few years ago the same question was presented to the attorney general's office for an opinion and that official took the same view as that expressed in the decision of the court.

It is up to the legislature to change the law if it desires.

Another opinion was handed down in the prohibition proceedings brought by the attorney general in behalf of the district court of Washoe county from punishing them for contempt for refusing to admit a child adjudged to be a dependent and neglected child and ordered to be received at the home under the juvenile law. Prohibition was granted.

HEALTH OFFICER SAYS NO DANGER FEVER EPIDEMIC

SIX CASES UNDER QUARANTINE AND TWO PATIENTS TO BE RELEASED SOON

Despite the statements to the contrary, numerous rumors have been placed in circulation within the past day or two as to a second epidemic of scarlet fever in this city. The fear of a general spread of the disease has prompted many parents to keep their children home from school, although Health Officer Richards maintains there is absolutely no necessity of such action.

Six cases of scarlet fever are now under quarantine and of this number Dr. Richards will remove the quarantine on two families either tomorrow or the following day, which will leave four cases under surveillance. The disease is being rapidly checked and with the aid of the parents Dr. Richards expects to have the town free from the disease within a comparatively short time.

In many instances parents have not notified the health officer when their children were taken ill, nor were the children kept from mingling with others. It is due to such negligence that the fever has been communicated. Within the past few days Dr. Richards has made investigations of cases reported to him and has discovered that the children were convalescent from scarlet fever. In such instances the children were running about during the entire time they were ill with the fever.

How Advertising Reduces Your Cost Of Living

ADVERTISING is the means by which merchants or manufacturers may tell a great number of people about the superior quality of their goods, the desirability of their merchandise and the reason it will be to your advantage to patronize them.

Advertising enables merchants to bring hundreds and thousands of customers to their stores. It enables them to do a large volume of business at minimum expense.

Advertising establishes the confidence of the community, makes new friends, keeps old customers interested and brings the news of the store right into the customer's home.

The merchant who advertises continuously appeals to all the people in town, while the merchant who does not advertise sits within his door and waits for the people to find him out or accidentally drop in as they are passing by.

Advertising is such a powerful selling force and business builder that merchants who use it are enabled to sell better goods at the lowest prices. Read the advertisements in THE BONANZA closely and constantly every day for proof.

FOR FIFTY YEARS KING GEORGE WAS RULER OF GREECE

(By Associated Press)

SALONIKA, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated here this afternoon. Attempts to secure details have proved fruitless as the officials have established a strict censorship.

King George, who had taken personal command of the troops during the earlier period of the war, had been in Salonika since November when the Turkish fortress was occupied by the Greeks after a short siege. The queen of Greece has also been in Salonika caring for the sick and wounded of the Balkan armies. In December King George met King Ferdinand of Bulgaria here to discuss the disposition of the captured Turkish territory after the war.

King George was in his 68th year and had ruled Greece for 50 years. He was a brother of Queen Mother Alexandra of England and a son of the late king of Denmark. A previous unsuccessful attempt to assassinate him was made in 1898.

He was married in 1867 to the Princess Olga, daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine of Russia.

The Crown Prince Constantine, who has been in active command of the Greek troops and the head of the army which recently captured the Turkish fortress Janina and 32,000 men, will succeed his father to the throne. His wife is the Princess Sophia, sister of the German emperor. He is still in Janina.
